

BAYIT (HOME) (2011)

English Title: Home

German Title: Heimat

Spanish Title: Hogar

Written and Directed by: DAVID OFEK

Language: Hebrew with English subtitles

Prizes Include: First Prize Edinburgh International Film Festival, Channel 4 Competition 1994

Best Documentary Prize – Oberhausen International Film Festival, Germany 1995

First Prize The Jerusalem Film Festival 1994 for the best Israeli short film of the year

Synopsis: David Ofek tells the story of his immigrant family from Iraq, sitting in the sealed room of their Israeli home during the Gulf War, looking at bombed-out Baghdad on their television. They realise that the ruin on the screen was once their home.

BABAGA (2013)

Written and Directed by: Gan de Lange

Language: No dialogue

Prizes Include: The Israeli Film Critics Association Award, The 15th International Student Film Festival, Tel-Aviv, 2013

First Prize for Best Fiction International Student Film Festival Pisek, Czech Republic 2014

First Prize for Innovation International “Gold Panda” Awards Chengdu, China, 2015

Synopsis: Babaga, a strange and wild woman, lives in the forest. Wandering around she finds the body of a handsome young man. She brings him back to life and nurses him and in time they grow close. Before exposing his blind eyes, she will try to make herself worthy of love.

CHOL (BEDOUIN SAND) (1997)

English Title: Bedouin Sand

Written and Directed by: Omri Levy

Language: Hebrew with English subtitles

Prizes Include: First Prize Uruguay International Film Festival 1999, First Prize Surprise International Film Festival Taichung, Taiwan; Best Narrative Award Humboldt International Film Festival USA; Special Mention Dresden International Film Festival 1998; Special Mention The Wolgin Awards Competition at the Jerusalem International Film Festival Best Film Mexico City Film Festival 1997

Synopsis: Nine year old Roy falls in love with a bottle of coloured sand that a Bedouin tries to sell him in Sinai. He learns that wanting and needing are not the same thing..

EICH RATSACHTI ET RABIN (HOW I KILLED RABIN) (2012)

English Title: How I Killed Rabin

Written and Directed by: Michael Alalu

Language: Hebrew with English subtitles

Prizes Include: Best Film Mediterranean and Middle East Spotlight: The International Student Film Festival Tel Aviv Israel 2012.

The Best Screenplay LUGGI WALDLEITNER AWARD and Munich International Festival of Film Schools, Germany 2012

The Most Original Film: WOLFGANG LANGSFELD AWARD Munich International Festival of Film Schools, Germany 2012

Synopsis: Itamar, a Jerusalem teenager, lives in the inner game world of “Rules and Fates” and longs to reveal his love for Gali, a member of his socialist youth movement. It is 1995, the journey to the peace rally in Tel Aviv on 4th November presents a window of opportunity but the world of “Rules and Fate” has its own rules and fates.

REMEZ (HINT) (2012)

English Title: Hint

Written and Directed by: Adi Bar Yossef

Language: Hebrew with English subtitles

Prizes Include: Audience Award Flicks Student Film Festival Netherlands 2013

Synopsis: Sharona (45), goes folk dancing every week at the Community Centre. Her husband’s frequent business trips abroad have left her to a clumsy dancing partner named Micha. A surprising turn of events gives Sharona strengths to return to the circle and dance, even on her own.

PETACH TIKVA (SHRED OF HOPE) (2007)

English Title – Shred of Hope

Written and Directed by: Tom Shoval

Language: Hebrew with English subtitles

Prizes Include: Best Student Film, Eilat Film Festival 2008

Synopsis: It is Winter, Julian is heading to work, as always. On his face signs of trouble are noticeable, but maybe it isn’t so, maybe it's nothing, just another ordinary day at work...

VIOLETA MI VIDA (2012) (Documentary)

Written and Directed by: Or Sinai

Language: Hebrew with English subtitles

Prizes Include: The Alex Bernstein Production Award, The Jerusalem International Film Festival 2012; The Award for Discovery of New Topics and New Heroes, International Documentary Film Festival Perm, Russia 2014

Synopsis: Debora will do anything to make her daughter's Violeta Bat Mitzvah as happy and glamorous as possible. She hopes to create an event so great which will help them forget the harsh everyday reality they live in. Debora's two sons are flying in from Argentina and for the first time since she immigrated to Israel, she will reunite with all her children under the same roof. The final preparations for the Bat Mitzvah raise many conflicts for Debora and her daughter; Debora's financial hardship – barely making ends meet cleaning houses, Violeta's rare bone disease, coping with fragmented family and alienation in a foreign country. Still, against all odds, they create their own world full of humour, imagination and love, and together they make their way to the Bat Mitzvah they longed for.

MEVOREHET (BLESSED) (2015)

English Title: Blessed

Written and Directed by: Prague Benbenisty

Language: Hebrew with English subtitles

Prizes Include: Honourable Mention Award: Beer-Sheva Short Film Festival 2017

Synopsis: Zohara is the daughter everyone takes for granted in her big, Moroccan family, while her sister, Oshrit, is a beauty about to get married. On the day of her younger sister's traditional henna ceremony, Zohara steals her sister's blessing, which is given to all brides before their wedding day. The mystical power of this blessing transforms Zohara, bringing her love and changing the dynamic of her relationship with her sister.

HARIKUD SHEL IMA (MOTHERS DANCE) (2003)

English Title – Mother's Dance

Written and Directed by: Zelda Hoha

Language: Hebrew with English subtitles

Prizes Include: The Wolgin Award for Best Student Production, Jerusalem International Film Festival 2003

Synopsis: Since the death of her mother, Lisa has been the mother of her three brothers. At night, the only time she has to herself, she writes. When she wins a student scholarship in Jerusalem, she faces the difficult dilemma: to leave or to remain at home taking care of the problematic family.

KRAV TARNEGOLIM (COCK FIGHT) (2000)

English Title – Cock Fight

French Title – Combat de Coqs

Spanish Title – Pelea de Gallos

Written and Directed by: Sigalit Liphshitz

Language: Hebrew with English subtitles

Prizes Include: First Prize Montpellier International Film Festival 2000,

Best Film Award, Milan International Short Film Festival Italy

The Jury Award for Best Film Munich International Festival of Film School Germany 2000,

Synopsis: It is a hot summer day. Israeli chicken breeder, accompanied by his Romanian worker is driving his Chickens to the market. Upon arriving at a Palestinian road-block, they are brought to a halt. Marziano the farmer, in his attempts to get through, is forced to confront the commander in charge – Nabil, a former worker in Marziano's chicken-coop.

COMING SOON

DCI CINEMA 2

ANTHEM (2008)

BONFIRE NIGHT (1998)

PERSONAL GOALS (1996)

DRIVER (2011)

CLEANING TIME (2013)

OUT OF REACH (2015)

THE PRINCIPLE OF GRACE (2015)

THE RED TOY (2004)

TATEH (2012)

DCI CINEMA 1